

UA Study Abroad Billing and Payment Policies: National Student Exchange

NATIONAL STUDENT EXCHANGE CHARGES

To participate in a National Student Exchange (NSE) program, each applicant is required to pay the following:

- ▶ UA Study Abroad Application Fee
- ▶ NSE Program Fee
- ▶ UA Tuition and Fees
- ▶ Mandatory International Health Insurance (for Canada and Guam placements only)

UA Study Abroad Application Fee

Students must pay a non-refundable $50 UA Study Abroad application fee that will be charged to a student's UA Bursar's account when an application is opened.

NSE Program Fee

Students that participate in the NSE program must pay a non-refundable $220 NSE Program Fee that will be charged to a student's UA Bursar's account once a student has submitted an application. The NSE Program Fee covers all services related to the administration of the National Student Exchange program at the University of Arizona and will be charged regardless of whether a student accepts or declines their NSE placement.

UA Tuition and Fees

Students must pay their regular UA tuition and fees as part of their study abroad program. Please note: UA tuition and fees are calculated based on several factors, including residency status, number of units offered in your study abroad program, and guaranteed tuition rates.

Mandatory International Health Insurance

Students that are placed at a university in Canada or Guam will be enrolled into a comprehensive and mandatory international health insurance plan with GeoBlue Health Insurance. The cost will be billed at $3 per day for each day of the exchange program, plus two days on either end of the program dates to allow for travel time.

Charges Billed by Host Institution

Students may have optional or mandatory host campus fees, which will be billed directly by the hosting institution. These fees may include, but are not limited to, course-related fees, laboratory fees, housing, and incoming NSE student fees. Students are responsible for determining what expenses are associated with their host institution.

BILLING

UA Study Abroad will bill program charges to a student's UA Bursar's account in accordance with Bursar's dates and deadlines (<https://bursar.arizona.edu/dates/deadlines>) for the appropriate study abroad term.

Charges may appear on a student's UA Bursar's account in any combination of the following three categories: TUIT (tuition), HOUS (housing) and OTHR (other).

Completion of the Commit to Program Form in UAbroad following acceptance into a NSE program serves as the student's official financial commitment to participate in a National Student Exchange program. In the event that a student decides to withdraw from the program, the student's UA Bursar's account will be charged in accordance with the UA Study Abroad Withdrawal Policy:
