UArizona Study Abroad

Family Studies & Human Development UA Rome

Spend a summer, semesters, or the academic year studying abroad in Rome, Italy and take courses to satisfy requirements for your Family Studies & Human Development major or minor. The University of Arizona partners with the American University of Rome to offer you a variety of transferable courses to choose from in collaboration with your FSHD academic advisor. Talk to your advisor about which UA Rome courses can be used for your general education requirements or electives.

You'll pay your University of Arizona tuition and get to use your financial aid, including AZ Excellence and Wildcat Excellence awards!

To make choosing courses easier for you, faculty in the Norton School of Family & Consumer Sciences pre-approved the following courses that can be applied to your Social Sciences and Statistics & Research Methods major requirements:

UA ROME COURSE	APPLICABILITY TO FSHD MAJOR
IA 307: International Human Rights	Social Sciences
IA 404: International Humanitarian Response	Social Sciences
MTH 102: Statistics I: Descriptive Statistics	MATH 107: Exploring and Understanding Data
MTH 103: Statistics II: Inferential Statistics	SBS 200: Introduction to Stats for Social Sciences
PSY 101: Introduction to Psychology	PSY 101: Introduction to Psychology
SOC 100: Introduction to Sociology	SOC 101: Introduction to Sociology
SOC 210: Gender in Global Perspectives	Social Sciences
