

Fees and Services

Below you will find the IFS fee chart, which delineates the fees and outlines services both inclusive and exclusive of the stated fees.

| H-1B New or Transfer | H-1B Amendment or Extension | Premium Processing | Prevailing Wage Request Only |
|----------------------|-----------------------------|--------------------|------------------------------|
| $2,000 | $1,500 | $350 | $150 |

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What fees are required to process an H-1B employment-based immigration application?

- IFS fee
- United States Citizenship and Immigration Services \(USCIS\) I-129 application fee
- USCIS Anti-Fraud fee (new or transfer applications only)
- Optional USCIS premium processing fee

Q: Who pays the fees?

- The IFS fees for H-1B Temporary Workers must be paid by the sponsoring department.
- The USCIS fees must be paid by departments.
- Premium processing fees may be paid by the individual in certain circumstances.

Q: How are IFS and USCIS fees paid?

- Fees paid to IFS by departments may be paid through UA Financials using Internal Billing (IB).
- Fees paid to USCIS may be paid with a personal check or University check. Checks must be made payable to "U.S. Department of Homeland Security". USCIS fees must remain separate, and should not be combined into a single check.

Q: What is the account number and object code we should use for Internal Billing?

- Account number: 2389007
- Object code: 0936