Working Abroad: Opportunities and Challenges in International Careers

THURSDAY, MARCH 23, 3:00PM - 4:00PM | RECEPTION TO FOLLOW 4:00-4:30PM
LOCATION: UA Student Union, Suite 411

Author of Working World: Careers in International Education, Exchange, and Development (now in 2nd edition), Sherry Mueller will discuss the range of opportunities and challenges of working internationally. Ms. Mueller worked for the Institute of International Education (IIE) for eighteen years, first as a program officer and then as Director of the Professional Exchange Programs staff. Prior to joining IIE, Ms. Mueller served as an Experiment Leader to the former Soviet Union, and an English Language Officer for the U.S. Department of State, and a lecturer at the University of Rhode Island. Selected publications include “Professional Exchanges, Citizen Diplomacy, and Credibility” in America’s Dialogue with the World, published by the Public Diplomacy Council, and “A Half Century of Citizen Diplomacy: A Unique Public Private Partnership,” published in The Ambassadors Review in Fall 2009. Ms. Mueller earned her M.A.L.D. and Ph.D. from Tufts University’s Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy.

PRESENTER:
Sherry Mueller, School of International Service

CO-SPONSORED BY: College of Humanities, College of Social and Behavioral Sciences, School of International Languages, Literature, and Cultures, Master’s in Development Practice, and Office of Global Initiatives