TUESDAY FEBRUARY 27

9:00 AM - 12:00 PM One-on-One with Dale LaFleur: Prospective Fulbright Scholar Applicants

The Fulbright Scholar Program offers teaching, research or combination teaching/research awards in over 125 countries. Interested faculty and professionals who want to learn more about these opportunities are invited to meet with Dale LaFleur, the UA Fulbright Scholar Liaison, on the UA campus. The award cycle for the 2018-2019 academic year opened February, 2017.
University Services Building, Room 309
(Contact Mary Ann Berg at 621-1900 to schedule your 30-minute session)

2:00 PM - 6:00 PM Peace Corps Fair 2017

Our theme this year is "Making the World Your Home." Meet returned Peace Corps volunteers. Ask questions and enjoy the sights, sounds, and stories gathered while living 27 months abroad in another culture. Visit with the Peace Corps recruiter and learn how and when to apply to Peace Corps. Find a local volunteer opportunity. Meet representatives from area organizations that host Peace Corps Coverdell Fellows and AmeriCorps members. A Fulbright Student Program information table will be included at the Fair. This event is free, family-friendly, and fun; a reception is included. Light refreshments served.
Student Union Memorial Center, North Ballroom

WEDNESDAY MARCH 1

12:00 PM - 1:00 PM Learn@Lunch: "What it Means to be a Fulbright Recipient"

Come join us for a very casual lunch hour where you can listen to visiting international Fulbright scholars and students share what it means to them to be awarded a Fulbright scholarship and how it influenced their work.
Tucson Marriott University Park (880 E 2nd St)
(Please register at global.arizona.edu/learn-at-lunch by Friday, February 25)

2:00 PM - 3:00 PM Fulbright U.S. Student Program Alumni Panel / UA Honors College

Emily Kotay, Scholarship Advisor from the Honors College, will be hosting a panel where students can ask Fulbright alumni about their experiences abroad and about their experience applying.
UA Honors College, Living Room at Slonaker House, 1027 E. Second Street

4:00 PM - 6:00 PM Fulbright Networking Reception

Enjoy homemade cookies, seasonal fresh fruit, delicious lemonade, iced water and good conversation.
